ST. ANDREW'S

NUWARA ELIYA • SRI LANKA

Delightful old world charm

Originally a private home, St. Andrew's was transformed into a Scots Club in 1875. Steeping with heritage and nostalgic tales to keep your conversations by the fireplace long and lengthy.

They call it little England

If you've got a penchant for the English country and its quaint distinctiveness, then you'll be completely taken in by the emerald blankets that surround this property, located in the heart of a town that's fondly known as 'Little England.'

Where traditional meets modern

Revel in the luxurious comfort of our suites. Adorned with colonial designs and equipped with modern amenities, it is a perfect blend of the old and the new.

As refined as the finest vintage

If it's the quintessential experience of English dining that you seek, then look no further. We'll evoke your most romantic desires in the warmth of our traditional Old English Restaurant. If it is more excitement you crave, then watch as our chefs prepare your favorite meals at our open show kitchen.

High tea delights

Enjoy sumptuous high tea in the comfort of the picturesque tea terrace as you take in the glorious view of lush rolling hills.

At his lordship's pleasure

What better way to start the day than with a trek across to the links, as you prepare to tee off.
