

Jetwing

LAGOON

NEGOMBO • SRI LANKA

Welcomed by grandeur

Privileged to have been the first resort hotel designed by Sri Lanka's architectural doyen, Geoffrey Bawa.

Transcending serenity

Boasting what is arguably the largest swimming pool along the west, trust us when we say, it's a splash into sublime serenity.

Paddling pleasures for all

A range of water sports and other activities are made available to you next to the calming waters of the Negombo lagoon.

Plunge into a unique scenery

Spoil yourself at the ultimate escape and kick back with a cold beer from the beach bar. Just a short walk from across the hotel, this little seaside haven is by the breathtaking coastal breeze of the Indian Ocean. Guarded by lifeguards, the beach is safe to dip into or perhaps you prefer a relaxing swim in the pool.

Surrender into the sublime

Experience the healing touch provided by our seasoned therapists, who not only offer a fusion of therapeutic packages ranging from authentic Balinese to Shiatsu but also a complete Ayurvedic treatment.

Boutique dining

Choose from a variety of alluring locations to plan your perfect dining experience. Whether under the stars or in the comfort of your own room, we'll make sure your experience is an unforgettable one.