DAMBULLA • SRI LANKA

Old World Charms

Dambulla boasts a rich heritage that spans through decades, long before the first settlers visited Ceylon. Situated within the Cultural Triangle, Dambulla is home to splendid architectural monuments that make up its unique heritage. Immerse yourself in all of its ancient grandeur and open your perspectives to the historic masterpieces of yesteryear.

Contemporary Design with a Classic Edge

Surrounded by nature in its rawest form, Jetwing Lake blends contemporary, stylish design with antique elements whilst maintaining commitment to environmental sustainability. Each element of design incorporates historical inspiration from Dambulla's dynasties as evident in all public spaces.

Luxury Brought to Life

At Jetwing Lake, each room is designed to utmost perfection that delivers in terms of opulence and quality, to provide you with the best experience. Wake up to magnificent, unparalleled vistas of the neighbouring regions. The Kalawel Kanda towers over Dambulla and the Siyambala Wewa lake boast an unforgettable view, especially at sunset. Revel in the architectural luxury that Jetwing Lake promises and experience what it feels to be treated like ancient royalty, with a contemporary twist.

Poolside Pleasures

Dambulla is well known for its lush, tropical climate. Enjoy a refreshing dip in the crystal clear waters of the pool. Stretching out to 71 metres the pool is a picturesque, azure strip that serves as the perfect complement to the Dambulla sun.

Culinary Excellence at its Best

Jetwing Lake offers signature dining options where you can choose to dine by the lake or under a canopy of leaves within the jungle, to name a few. Enjoy a refreshing beverage at one of our bars, or if you prefer Sri Lankan cuisine, head to the Viewing Gallery for a homegrown dining experience. The Chinese Restaurant Lu Lin houses an extravagant menu that will leave you spoilt for choice. Each meal is specifically catered to deliver an explosion of flavour that is on par with international standards of culinary excellence.
