1. Introduction

Jetwing Warwick Gardens lies 5782 feet above sea level. It is gifted with all nature's bounties and is cradled amidst green clad mountains enriched with tea estates that can be witnessed on the narrow and winding road up to the bungalow. This unique Edwardian style bungalow which was once the dwelling of a Scottish tea planter was restored to its original old charm and warmth.

The bungalow consists of five well appointed rooms, library, dining hall, open terraces and gardens, with the comfort of every modern convenience alongside the more traditional delights.

2. Location

The drive up to the hotel is a scenic one, with lush greenery, waterfalls, tea plantations and majestic mountains. It is approximately 200 Km (6 hours) from the Bandaranaike International Airport, and within a land area of 30 acres and surrounded by 1200 acres of tea plantation.

3. Rooms

Maintaining the charm and elegance of its colonial past, the five bedrooms at Jetwing Warwick Gardens are lavishly furnished. The attached bathrooms are equipped with hot and cold water and each room has its own individual heating unit and other modern amenities to enhance your stay.
